CORPORATE PROFILE

Welcome Address

Greetings

Individual or organisational transformation is a progress, and development is the required process. Uthunthu means completeness. To attain completeness, there has to be a holistic development and transformation. I welcome you to our firm which is a leading entity in designing and developing contextualised training materials that makes your teams cultivate a winning character, creative and competence. Our team consist of experts and experienced trainers. We parade a successful 12 years experience of holistically developing and transforming organisations.

Organisations can only excel in line with their developed capacity. Capacity development must be holistic and targeted to team members hearts (character development), heads (mindset and creativity) and hands (skills development). That's our key purpose and practice. To help your team through the process of development, all the way to the progress of transformation. Let's go!

About Us

Founded 2014

Registered by Malawi Government

BRN-5GSJDDL

Catalysts for holistic capacity development.

Uthunthu Consultancy is a premier holistic development and transformation firm empowering individuals and organizations to reach their fullest potential. Founded in 2014 by Caswel Mkanda, it was built on the belief that true success comes from nurturing the complete person spiritually, mentally, and practically. The name Uthunthu, from the Chichewa word for "completeness," reflects its mission to foster growth in character, creativity, and competence through its signature BSD Model.

At its core is the conviction that sustainable progress requires more than skills it demands a shift in mindset, values, and action. The BSD Model addresses this through three dimensions: Being (character development), Seeing (mindset transformation), and Doing (skills enhancement). This integrated approach has driven change across sectors, from corporate leadership teams to university students and prison rehabilitation programs.

The firm specializes in strategic planning, change management, talent development, and team building, offering tailored solutions aligned with clients' goals. Whether guiding organizations through transitions, shaping high-performing teams, or equipping individuals with lifelong skills, it combines practical expertise with a commitment to human transformation.

What sets Uthunthu apart is its dedication to holistic growth the understanding that thriving organizations are built by thriving people. From global NGOs like World Vision International to local institutions, it partners with leaders who recognize that lasting success begins within. With Uthunthu Consultancy, transformation is not a one-time event but a continuous journey toward excellence, purpose, and impact.

Our Story

Founded in 2014 by Caswel Mkanda after completing his first degree, Uthunthu Consultancy emerged from a deep recognition of the need for holistic human development one that nurtures the spirit, emotions, and physical life of individuals. Driven by this vision, Mkanda developed the transformative BSD Model, a comprehensive framework designed to foster complete personal and societal growth.

BSD Model: A Holistic Approach to Development

The BSD Model is built on three foundational pillars, each targeting a critical aspect of human transformation:

Being(B): Focused on the heart, this dimension cultivates Character through spiritual formation, shaping the core values and integrity of an individual.

Seeing(S): Centered in the mind, this dimension fosters Creativity through mindset change, enabling new perspectives and innovative thinking.

Doing(D): Rooted in action, this dimension develops Competence through skills training, empowering individuals to apply their knowledge effectively.

The model asserts that true national development begins with the complete transformation of its people addressing not just skills, but also mindset and character.

Impact & Reach

Since its inception, Uthunthu Consultancy has transformed lives across diverse sectors, including:

- Universities - Equipping students with holistic growth tools.
- Prisons - Facilitating rehabilitation through mindset and character development.
- Organizations - Training leaders, managers, and boards for institutions such as World Vision International and Compassion Malawi.

The Meaning of "Uthunthu"

Derived from the Chichewa word for "completeness," Uthunthu embodies our commitment to fostering wholeness in individuals and communities. Through our tailored programs, we continue to empower people to achieve their fullest potentialspiritually, mentally, and practically.

At Uthunthu Consultancy, we don't just develop skills we build complete people for a thriving world.

B	Focused on the heart, this dimension cultivates Character through spiritual formation, shaping the core values and integrity of an individual.
S	Centered in the mind, this dimension fosters Creativity through mindset change, enabling new perspectives and innovative thinking.
D	Rooted in action, this dimension develops Competence through skills training, empowering individuals to apply their knowledge effectively.
